Annual Independence Day Parade Is Ready

Christian Lopes, president of the newly formed Monterey Peninsula Parade of Champions Independence Day Parade committee, has announced that all is ready for the 24th Annual Independence Day Parade held annually in Seaside.

This year the parade will be held Sunday, July 2nd in order to attract as many outstanding units as possible

Along with Christian Lopes as president, Jim Spitz is 1st vice president, Joe Ferreira is treasure and Verlain Crawford as secretary, with Howard Ingels as general parade chairman.

Ingels reported that this year's parade being strictly invitational, emphasis was on inviting quality units, not quanity and that the response has been good with top floats, bands, drill teams, drum and bugle corps and other marching units responding.

Among some of the top units are the famous Watsonville Marching Band, the Half Moon Bay Spanish Dons, State Champion drill team along with floats from San Juan, Castroville, Seaside, Marina, Firbaugh, Kingsburg and many others.

Highlighting the kickoff on the day of the Parade will be a Pancake Breakfast beginning at 8 a.m., sponsored by the Seaside Chamber of Commerce.

The parade kicks off at 12 noon and signaling the start will be a Fly Over of A-7 Corsair 11 jet aircraft from the Alameda Naval Air Station.

Following the completion of the parade there will be a Chicken Bar-B-Q. This is sponsored by the Young Adults for Action. This will also have two hours of entertainment highlighted by the Watsonville Band.

The Pancake Breakfast, Bar-B-Q, Entertainment and awarding of parade prizes will be held in the Heitzinger Plaza where the Butts Pontiac and Graham Buick auto dealers are located.

The parade route will be the same as in past years, beginning on Fremont at Trinity and dispersing on La Salle street.

Fort Ord Honors Grad

The first soldier to receive a degree through the Fort Ord Education Center, College Section, was graduated recently.

Specialist Five James A. Lingren received an Associate of Arts degree from Monterey Peninsula College.

Presenting the diploma was Dr. John Blakemore, president of MPC. Attending the ceremony was Major General H. G. Moore, commanding general of Ft. Ord, Mrs. James A. Lingren, wife of the graduate, and representatives of MPC, Golden Gate College and the University of Oklahoma.

Assigned to Headquarters, 4th Brigade as the Public Information NCO, Sp5 Lingren began his formal education at Barstow Junior College in Barstow, Calif. He had completed 2 1/2 years there when he entered the U.S. Army in February 1970.

"I continued my education by enrolling in on-post college courses," says Sp5 Lingren, "because I wanted to improve my previous grades before I enter a four-year college."

In the commencement speech given by Dr. Blakemore, he said, "This is a new and unique method of bringing courses to the serviceman, and I hope it will continue and expand."

Specialist Lingren and his wife, Kathy, plan to make their home in Daggett, Calif.

Pact Against Drugs Ok'd

Monterey Peninsula Unified School District trustees have approved a joint powers agreement to establish the Monterey Peninsula Youth Crisis-Information Project.

The board voted approval of the agreement June 5. The joint proposal also needs the approval of other Peninsula school districts and cities, and would replace Project Aquarius in dealing with the community-wide drug abuse problem.

Approval of the agreement did not pin the school board down to a specific financial commitment to the project. A school board representative will be assigned to a joint board that will run the project, and each participating agency will have the opportunity to accept or reject the budget formulated by the joint board.

March on Post Office Is Tomorrow

Women and children of Monterey county will assemble in front of the Monterey Post Office, Hartnell Street, Monterey on Thursday, June 22 from 4 to 5:30 p.m. to express support for the thousands of women and children who will encircle the Congress in Washington, D.C. on that day.

Monterey county women and children and their counterparts in Washington D.C. will stand in spirit with the Indochinese women and children and will demand an immediate cutting off of the funds which perpetuates the slaughter of Vietnamese, makes victims of young American men and denies the needs of poor people in America.

Following serious dialogue with Congresspeople to cut off all war money, the Washington D.C. women will make a roll call report in the Capitol Rotunda on each Congressperson's response.

It is hoped that the participation of so many American women and children will help put an end to the improverishment and needless grief caused by human killing and at the same time carry the joyous message that together we can build a world without war.

Rep. Shirley Chisholm, Rep. Bella Abzug, Caretta King, Gloria Steinem, Joan Baez, Dolores Huerta, Jane Spock, Kay Boyle, Jeannette Rankin, Fannie Lou Hammer and Eileen Hernandez are some of the sponsors of the national event.

Pick Up Times Are Set

Effective immediately, mail to be dispatched in the evening from Seaside Post Office must be deposited at the Post Office or placed in the curbside "Snorkel" Collection Box at Santa Barbara Street and Olympia Avenue no later than 5:30 p.m. each day.

Quantity mailers can facilitate and expedite mail handling by facing and banding mail before deposit.

Mail deposited in Arterial Collection Boxes by 5 p.m. (collection time is displayed on such boxes) will also make the evening dispatch.

Mail for delivery in Seaside should be deposited in the "SEASIDE ONLY" slot in the post office lobby to be assured of next-day delivery.

Your letter carrier will begin his route at 8 a.m. each workday (one hour earlier than heretofore). Any business that is not open at 8 a.m. is requested to provide a proper mail receptacle (Door Slot, etc.) for mail deposit by your Carrier.

Child Care Class Is Offered

A special program for nursery school and child care center directors will be offered at Monterey Peninsula College this summer from June 19 through July 7.

The institute class, Home Economics 670, is entitled "Administration and Supervision of the Nursery School," and is required for nursery school and child center director licensing by the State Department of Social Welfare.

Three units of credit will be awarded for successful completion of the class, which will deal with program, budget and equipment planning and staff relations. Persons interested in taking the class, which ill meet from 9 a.m. to noon during the three-week duration of the course, should call Jackie Bachels, 375-9821, or the MPC Registrar at the same number.

Youths Still Need Jobs

Young people from Seaside and other areas of the Monterey Peninsula are out of school for the summer and most of them need jobs. Even those young people who are attending summer school will be free part of every week day and week-ends to accept employment. This is an opportunity for employers to hire a student, who needs both work experience and possibly money for school clothes or other expenses next fall.

Employers can fill vacation spots in many businesses and housewives can get help in home and garden work by hiring a student through Student Employment Service, a non-profit Monterey Peninsula agency. The SES telephone number is 373-0143.

Center Will Pick Up Recyclables

David Mann, managing director of the Monterey Peninsula Ecology Center, announced recently that the Center will pick up recyclables throughout the community. But, there's a hitch. All cans and bottles set aside for recycling by the center must be properly prepared or they will not be picked up.

Before pickups can be made, persons desiring the pickup should phone the Center at 372-9478 to get information about how preparation can be done easily and quickly right in the kitchen.

Mann said the easiest way to prepare for a weekly pickup is to collect all cans and bottles for a block at one house on the block.

The pickups are instituted on an experimental basis and will not be continued unless cans and bottles are properly prepared.

There is no charge for this community service and it is available in Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel and Seaside.

If I expose my nakedness
As a person to you -
Do not make me feel shame.

Who are you? Let's you and I communicate! COMMUNICATION refers to a process by which someone or something is made common. It is shared. If you tell me a secret, then you and I posses the knowledge of your secret in common and you have communicated it to me.

I believe you have more to communicate to me, if you wish to, than merely one of your secrets. You can tell me who you are, just as I can tell you who I am.

In our present society we are placing masks over the face of our "real" selves and playing roles which disguise us. But somewhere, inside of you and inside of me lurk our real selves. There are times when this real self of mine shines out of me, and there are other times when I feel compelled to camouflage my real self. I am sure that is the case with you also. There is no fixed, true and real person inside of you or me because being a person implies becoming a person, being in process.

If you knew me yesterday, do not think that it is the same person that you are meeting today. I have experienced more of life, I have experienced new depths in those I love, I have suffered and prayed, and I am different. So

ACS Food Locker Is Beginning

A small idea conceived one afternoon at a meeting of the 3rd Brigade Wives Club has branched into a major community project by them for Ft. Ord's Army Community Service (ACS).

ACS' provides assistance, guidance and service to active duty and retired personnel, their dependents and surviors of deceased military personnel in resolving personal problems beyond the scope of their own resources.

The 3rd Brigade wives idea was to establish a food locker and then raise the funds to provide the food.

This would enable ACS to provide complete care for families with financial problems. Up to this point ACS has had to refer such families to either Army Emergency Releif, where they can borrow money to buy food for their families or to the Salvation Army.

The food will be destributed to needy families in cases which are bonified emergencies. Non-receipt to pay and loss of pay are two examples of such emergencies.

This effort is a continuing project for the 3rd Brigade Wives Club. Through donations at their meetings they hope to have a continuous supply of food stored in the locker.

Each year at Christmas the remaining food in the locker will be used in Ft. Ord's Christmas baskets for needy families. The Army Community Service is located in the Welcome Center.

Book Fair Is This Weekend

All Saints' Church is having its 12th annual Book Fair this Saturday, June 24, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Parish Hall, Lincoln and 9th, Carmel.

As in previous years the sale will have fiction and non-fiction, including biography, drama, poetry, travel, reference, childrens', art, religion, and philosophy books, as well as art, travel, and science magazines, records and sheet music, pictures and frames and library accessories.

New this year will be a collectors' corner of rare and special books such as first editions and out-of-print reference books.

A snack bar will serve homemade coffee cake and coffee throughout the day. From 11:30 to 1:30 a patio buffet luncheon will feature homemade minestrone, French bread and fruit compote, prepared under the direction of Mrs. Donald Taugher.

Free baby sitting service will be available all day.

St. Bede's Library Guild sponsors this event. Mrs. Donald Taugher is the chairman, and she is assisted by Mrs. Alfred Cooper, Mrs. Eben Whittlesey, Miss Elizabeth Woods and Miss Faith Conklin.

Proceeds from the fair go to the Vera Millis Memorial Library at All Saints' Church, and to support school libraries, scholarship funds and ecumenical projects such as Camp Amigos.

Donations of books, music and especially of rare items for the collectors' corner are needed and may be taken to the Parish Hall, or call Mrs. Alfred Cooper (372-9267) or Miss Faith Conklin (372-7001) for pick-up.

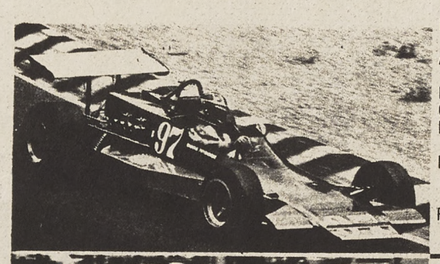
SCCA Road Racing Classification

Category: Formula



Pure racing cars—open-wheel, single-seat machines similar to but slightly different than international formulas 1, 2 and 3.

Classes:
A—5-liter (305 cubic inches), production based engines as well as all-out 3-liter (183 c.i.) racing engines.
B—Modified 1600 cc (98 c.i.), production-based engines
C—Modified 1100 cc (67 c.i.) engines
Formula F—1600 cc (98 c.i.) Ford Cortina/Capri/Pinto engines only, with limited modifications Formula Vee—Based on 1200 cc VW components. VW steering, gear box, suspension and wheels. Very popular with competitors as they are inexpensive and closely matched.
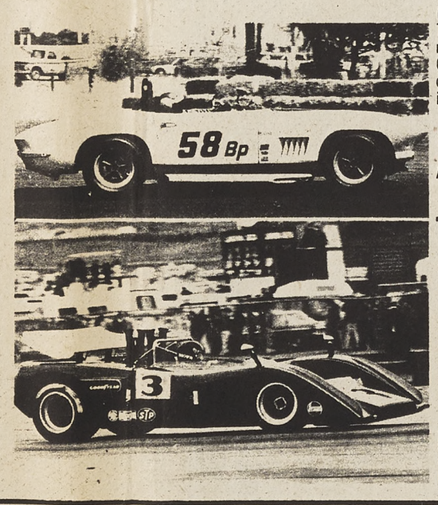
Formula Super Vee—Based on VW 1600 cc (98 c.i.) engines. Less restrictive than Formula Vee.

Category: Sedan

Mass-produced sports sedans with rear seat passenger carrying capacity that are recognized by SCCA. Cars ranging from Mustangs to Minis race in engine size classes. In classes B and C performance within a class is equalized by keying car weight to engine displacement so that cars with smaller engines compete at a lighter weight.

Classes:
A—2500 cc to 5000 cc (153 c.i. to 305 c.i.)
B—1300 cc to 2500 cc (79 c.i. to 153 c.i.)
C—Up to 1300 cc (79 c.i.)



Category: Production

Mass-produced sports cars ranging from Sting Ray to Sprite. These cars resemble showroom cars but are permitted some modifications, largely in the interests of safety and parts life. Cars are classified by performance, not engine size, which offers more and better racing for a larger variety of models, including many out of production.

Classes:

A through H, in descending order of performance.

Category: Sports Racing

Sports cars that are nearly unlimited in design that compete according to engine size. They have two seats and four fenders but are very stark in fittings. They are also known as FIA Group 7 cars and range from V-8-powered McLarens and Lolas to one-of-a-kind home-built specials with motorcycle engines. They offer probably the best opportunity in racing for individual ingenuity in auto design.

Classes:

A—over 2000 cc (122 c.i. up)
B—1300 cc to 200 cc (79 c.i. to 122 c.i.)
C—850 cc to 1300 cc (52 c.i. to 79 c.i.)
D—up to 850 cc (52 c.i.)

Morgan Horse Show Will Be Here Soon

The 1972 Golden West National Morgan Horse Show will make its fourth appearance at the Monterey Fairgrounds, on June 30, July 1 and 2. The annual three-day, nationally accredited horse show will feature America's first breed of horse, the Morgan, in a variety of classes demonstrating its beauty, versatility and special qualities and characteristics.

According to Roy Coats, Chairman of the show, "We expect the 1972 Golden West National to be our largest and most successful, with many of the most outstanding Morgans in the western United States already scheduled to participate. We're especially pleased again to have our show on the famous Monterey Peninsula, one of the most beautiful vacation areas in the country."

The Morgan horse, which had its orgin in Vermont in 1789, received much public attention with the February Disney television presentation of "Justin Morgan Had A Horse," based on the book of the same title by Marguerite Henry. The two-part show, which portrayed the true story of the first Morgan and the life of his namesake owner, won many new enthusiasts to Morgans and the horse world at large.

As a special incentive, class sponsors will receive a special consideration on stall fees. For further information on The Golden West National Morgan Horse Show, persons may contact Roy Coats, 10828 Griffith Avenue, Delhi, California 95315.

don't give me a "batting average" because I am in there always swinging at opportunities of daily living. So it is certain that I have changed. Even if you recognize this, I still may be somewhat afraid to tell you who I am.

I met Melanie. I said, "I'm going to write a column, based on Why Am I Afraid to Tell You Who I Am?"

"Do you want an answer to your question?" she asked.

"That is the purpose," I answered, "of the column, to answer the question."

Melanie asked, "Do you want my answer?"
"Yes, of course I do." I answered.
"I am afraid to tell you who I am," she said, "because if I tell you who I am, you may not like who I am, and it's all that I have."

This was the conversation It reflects some of the fears and doubts which cripple most of us and keeps us from moving ahead on the road to maturity, happiness and true love.

We reviewed a book by the well-known California psychiatrist, Dr. Eric Berne, The Games People Play. It speaks of people with ego states. None of us remain permanently fixed in any of these ego states, we fluctuate depending on the situation and our needs of the moment--BY PLAYING LITTLE GAMES.

These games are almost always little maneuvers on our part, which we use to avoid self-realization and self-communication. They are little shields which we carry in front of us as we enter the battle of life. They are designed to protect us from being hurt and help us win some little trophy for our egos. (Little victories or successes which bring us protection or recognition.) We always have a variety of ego states to choose from, depending on the needs of the moment or the life-situation.

They have one thing in common, which makes it disasterous: they defeat self-knowledge and destroy all possibility of honest self-communication with others. Therefore, the price of victory is costly.

There are people who play games with others constantly. They set others up to react to them in the way that they want them to react. They may never grow into authentic persons because they have settled for being children in need. They send out their "pity signals" in the sound of their voices and the expressions on their faces. They can actually condition others to react very gently towards them, because they sound and look as helpless as any child.

It is easy for them to find "the helper" who wants to make everyone else "the helped." On occasions, the "child" has even married "the helpers" and they make a life-long game of it together. Things will go very well because neither of them will ever have to grow up. It would be a great world, or even a great city, If people who consider themselves "adults," would discontinue allowing the "child" to give vent to their ego states, at the expense of the "adult" and communications could very well be improved in this community, or even throughout the world. In fact, I believe, if the fears and insecurity which prompt people to assume various ego states and play various games, would allow them to be in honest touch with their emotions, the patterns of "pity signals" would emerge and become obvious to them and to the people they are communicating with.

Speaking of communications (again), last Sunday there was a parade in Santa Cruz for MISS CALIFORNIA. Appearing in the parade were also the winners from each county in California, including Monterey County. As I watched and photographed the parade in it's entirety, I was amazed to discover that Seaside's own Miss Black Teenage California and Miss Black Teenage Monterey County was not represented. Is there a lack of communications among the contest officials also? I was surprised to find there are hours of counties in California. An interesting obervation: Did you know that MISS SAN DIEGO COUNTY WAS Black?

My boss gives his "hellos," and thanks for your prayers and your many candles. He is back on his feet and semi-active again. In fact he atteded his first official luncheon in Salinas yesterday (Tuesday). He's looking great!

Your Supervisor Reports

ME THADONE is must in the news the last two years and it still has many controversial aspects. The use of Methadone has not yet been fully evaluated and many years may go by before all of the facts connected with its use may be known.

The one fact stands out clearly in my mind.....people who are addicted to heroin and wanting desperately to break the frug habit fund some hope in the Methadone treatment. From a study of carefully documented cases many people suffering from heroin addiction can hod their jobs, lead a very productive life and maintain their families with the help of this treatment. However, in order for it to be successful the involved person must have a real desire to break his or her heroin habit.

About two years ago the Monterey County Board of Supervisors asked the State and Federal authorities to allow the County Health Department to institute a pilot Methadone treatment center to assist as many heroin users as possible. Our Health Department was given permission by these governmental agencies to provide treatment for fifty drug users but all persons treated had to be over 21 years of age. This program has been very successful but it is only scratching the surface. During the first year of experience with the program the Board has been agressively seeking State and Federal approval of an enlarged program of Methadone treatment.

It is a real pleasure to be able to report that our program now has been authorized to expand treatment from 50 to 100 persons and also of great significance is that we have now been authorized to treat young people between the ages of 18 to 21 years. My strong belief is in the great need to help OUR YOUNG PEOPLE who are trying to break the chains of the terrible drug habit they find themselves involved in...many of these young people have written to me concerning their inability to botain help....at last we have some relief for them but it is not nearly enough to make any significant impression of the number of Heroin users in Monterey County. The number of users in our County is conservatively estimated to be at least 1,000.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS WILL CONTINUE AN ALL OUT EFFORT to continue EXPANSION OF OUR DRUG TREATMENT PROGRAM which has been judged y State Officials to be a very effective one.

Letters To The Editor

Editor: I am of the opinion that all those readers who are so critical about what Mayor Dolan writes in the paper do not know him.

When you read what he writes you may believe that he is another small-town politician of the super-patriot sort. It is true that he writes that way, but when I had a chance to listen to him he was not so bad after all. In his column he paints himself a reactionary with flagwaving and so forth and that is why maybe many listeners booed him when he spoke at the rally for McGovern supporters at King Jr. High in Seaside on the Sunday before the election.

But they did not know Mayor Dolan anymore than me. What he said was not bad and changed the opinion of many persons about the Mayor.

Mayor Dolan was proud to be a registered Democrat and he said it was high time that a Democrat replaced President Nixon and that any Democrat would be better than President Nixon. He was also proud that his wife was an active McGovern supporter.

So those readers who think that Mayor Dolan is just a flagwaver should try to listen to him some time and hear that he is just asm is just as much against the war as they are. He is not behind the bad decisions of the Nixon government.

Thank you.

Editor: In March of 1971, the Post published my criticism of an editorial of the now defunct Seaside Community News. Readers may remember the green, semi-literate propaganda paper that was used in the council recall action by a man who refused to identify himself. In my comments I pointed out the reactionary agitation established a connection between right-wing extremism and the recall.

Today, with the recall behind us, propaganda with the same innuendoes, non-sequiturs and the same low level of literacy and consciousness is offered instead of relevant communication on local affairs. One would expect that people who seek office frantically have something to contribute to the community. There are so many topics of local interest that there is no need to resort to Agnewese agitprop themes.

Without regard for priority or completness I suggest some subjects: What is done to preserve Roberts Lake, Laguna Grande, the Seaside beach? Are there plans for a library building? Is the police department space in the new City Hall already inadequate? Can the city arrange better medical and social aid for the old and poor, whom it has many? Can the Monterey Peninsula School District be persuaded to achieve racial balance in its schools? Do we need an ordinance that prohibits the removal of trees in residential areas? Can the appearance of the wall and grounds around the auto center be improved? What does the city do to improve community relations? Are the police resources for the prevention of residential burglaries sufficient?

The list of possible topics is long enough to prevent our leadership from becoming mired in blatant nonsense.

Sincerely,
SEA
Seaside

Mayor Dolan Reports

Joe Dolan

IMPORTANCE OF CIVIC SERVICE

This report conveys my thanks to all our Agency, Commission, and Board members who contribute their time, energies, and personal sacrifice--without any pay whatsoever for Seaside's progress.

Listen below are our Commission/Boards with the number of our citizen leaders who voluntarily serve:

Art Commission - 7; Board of Architectural Review - 5; Finance Committee - 6; Human Relations Commission - 7; Park & Recreation Commission - 7; Planning Commission - 7; Redevelopment Agency - 5;

Total of 44 citizens filling Community Leader positions! Additionally, we have other citizens serving on County and Regional boards.

One of the highest honors we can pay an individual is to give him or her the title of Community Leader. To be a community leader requires one to be:
(1) a good citizen and (2) to be willing to help one's fellow men by serving the community in a great many different ways.

When we live in a community, we become a part of it and as part of that community we should not be concerned only with what we ourselves cen get from it. We must give some thought to how we may contribute something to others who share with us this same community. This is known as community responsibility and those who take this responsibility the most seriously and act accordingly are known as community leaders. They are the 44 people listed above!

The community leader may be a typical and average person without any special talents or qualifications exept a well-developed sense of citizenship responsibility. It is not his purpose to do extraordinarily well. The community leader is concern with ordinary matters that concern his fellow man and seeks to help others in these ordinary ways.

Most people believe that public service is the sole responsibility of elected or appointed civic officers. The citizen of our community is in reality a stockholder in a municipal corporation. Every individual has a responsibility to his community that goes beyond mere voting for city officials and paying his taxes. The citizen should join in community enterprises and cooperate in all undertakings designed to make his community more progressive and a better place in which to live.

Again - thanks to all of our Community Leaders!

Chamber of Commerce Progress Report

By Verlaine Crawford
Manager

"Why not come to the Board meeting on Thursday?" has become my favorite line, and sure enough, Thursday morning at 8 a.m. we see new faces and hear new ideas at the Board of Directors meetings at the Chamber office.

These Thursday meetings have become more than just a discussion of Chamber functions, they have become rap sessions where people can express their views and examine the problems facing the entire community.

It may come as no surprise to you, but businessmen ARE concerned about what happens in the community, not just profit and loss. You can't really divide community action from business, for each needs the other.

Last Thursday, Chief of Police Ben Cooper told the Chamber members about the considerable decrease in crime in the City of Seaside. We are 23 to 27 percent down as compared to the state average on burglaries. The Crime Prevention program initiated by the Seaside Police has put pressure on the criminals. The Police Aids have contacted citizens to inform them on how they can help prevent crime. Computer programming has helped the police to keep one step ahead of the burglars.

The Police Department is also glad to help businessmen by putting on seminars for employees to teach them about check cashing and merchandising to discourage theft.

It was announced at the Thursday meeting that Miss Regina Battle was the winner of the title, Miss Black Teenage California, and that she will be going to New York to compete for Miss Black Teenage America on the 23rd of July. Her representative, Ted Cunningham, asked the Chamber for support to send her family to New York with her, so she may compete for the crown.

The Chamber gave Mr. Cunningham the bumper stickers "Seaside Means Business," so that students may sell them to help raise the money for the trip. They also donated bleacher pillows, which can be sold at the 4th of July Parade. It was recommended that Mr. Cunningham should make up little cans with a picture of Regina for businessmen to put in their stores, so that they can get donations.

The possibility of lending support to the Community Center planned by the City is under investigation by the Chamber. Our Youth Involvement Committee, headed by Sandford Chambliss, is interested in organizing youth activities in Seaside.

The Chamber's Pancake Breakfast, headed by Bill Brown of Fort Ord, will kick-off the activities for the Independance Day Parade on July 2nd. The breakfast will open from 7 to 11 a.m. in the Monterey Peninsula Auto Center near Butts Pontiac in Seaside. Pancakes, syrup, sausage, cocoa and coffee will be served for $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. A Barbershop Quartet will perform at 10 a.m. for the breakfast crowd.

Floats, marching units, antique cars, equestrian units, bands, beauty queens and V.I.P.'s will all be riding in the Parade of Champions on July 2. It will begin at 12 noon and proceed north on Fremont Blvd. A barbecue, sponsored by Young Adults for Action will be served after the Parade.

"Why not come to the Board meeting on Thursday--8 a.m.? You're welcome."

Zen Workshop At MPC This Weekend

Zen master Dainin Katagiri-roshi will lead a two-day Zen meditation workshop at Monterey Peninsula College this Saturday and Sunday, June 24-25.

Katagiri-roshi, now a resident of the Monterey Peninsula, was born in Osaka, Japan, and was ordained a monk in 1946. He has been instructing Westerners in Zen for several years.

Teaching Buddism to Americans, he says, is "pretty difficult." He adds, "Whatever you do you have to take full care of everything with mindful attention to your own life, to the situation of the group... so as to let the compassionate spirit penetrate everywhere."

Teaching practice in America is different than in Japan, he points out. "The Japanese people have just traditional customs -- memorial service, and so on. If I was at my temple now it wouldn't be so necessary to study Buddhism through books. In Japan, if I speak of some aspect of Buddhism logically, they don't understand."

The workshop is designed as an introduction to Zen meditation, and those attending are urged to bring cushions to sit on and to wear losse-futting clothing covering the knees.

The workshop is sponsored by the Peninsula Sona Zendo and University for Man.

Both sessions will be held in MPC Dace Studio. Saturday's session will last from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. On Sunday, the workshop will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. A $5 registration fee will be charged for the first day, and $2.50 for the second.

Today's Army NEWS By SSG R. Cardwell

ARMY RECRUITER

Hi everyone, the Army has unveiled a New Heart Device. Scientist at the Army Electronics Command and Patterson Army Hospital at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, are working on a miniature, portable coronary care unit expected to be a major milestone in the treatment of heart patients. The unit is implanted in the chest and automatically restores the heart to normal rhythm when it begins to beat unevenly, either too fast or too slow. Already tested on animals, the unit measures only three by three inches and three-quarters of an inch thick. The unit could begin tests on humans by the end of the year, following final clearance from the Food and Drug Administration.

Also would you believe that the Army physicians throughout the world delivered an average of 171 babies a day in 1971, a 15.5 percent increase since 1967.

In my previous articles I stated that the Army has over 300 technical jobs to offer you providing you can qualify. Would you ever think the Army is one of the safest places to be? Well, it is. The Army has once again been awarded the National Safety Council's Award of Honor for outstanding achievement in the field of safety during 1971. This marks the eight consecutive year the Army has received the honor, the Safety Council cited its continual record of accident reduction.

Not only does Today's Army offer over 300 different jobs, but it's also safe to perform them. If you can qualify for one of those 300 guaranteed jobs you too can belong to one of the most elite organizations ever existed, the US Army.

A young man that enlisted this month in our Regualr Army enlistment option was Larry Gene Pizzola. Larry resided at 342 Lieury Way, Marina.

Since school is out, many of you will be seeking jobs but you have no ideas on the different jobs the Army can offer. Stop by our office at 431 Webster St., Monterey, or call 372-4742/372-0553 and we can answer all the questions you may have.

Mary Ellen / Social Editor

Jean Ibarreta Isreal and Vernon Anthony Fernandez were united in marriage recently in St. Francis Xavier Church, Seaside. Father Joe Watts officiated the 3 p.m. ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Isaac Y. Israel of Seaside, wore a floor length white organza gown, styled with an empire waist, A-line skirt, bell sleeves and detachable train. Venise lace edged around the wedding ring neckline and bodice. Her illusion elbow length veil was held in place by a juliet cap of venise lace.

Maid of honor was Rena Gomez of Carmel. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl Thormeyer, sister of the groom, of Monterey, Belen Domingo of Carmel and Mrs. Hung Hoang of Marina. Kathrina Corpus, niece of groom and Jolene Hoang, both of Marina, were flower girls.

The bridesgroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco E. Guerrero of Marina, chose his brother, SSG Melvin Fernandez of Fort Bragg, North Carolina to serve as bestman. Ushers were SP Mervin Fernandez, another brother of the groom, who is presently serving a tour of duty in West Germany, Andrew Ancog of Bakersfield and Robert Kwon of Seaside. Vance (Kimo) Aniya was the ringbearer.

The bride graduated from Montere High School in 1968 and attended Monterey Peninsula College. She also graduated from Bryant and Stratton School of Commerce in San Jose. She is presently working in Finance and Accounting Division, Comptroller, Fort Ord.

The groom, graduated in 1968 from Seaside High School and attended Monterey Peninsula College. He is employed by the La Playa Hotel in Carmel. He has another sister, Mrs. Madeline Corpus of Los Angeles.

A reception immediately following the wedding was held at FOES Hall Monterey.

Following a honeymoon in Lake Havasu, Arizona the newlyweds are making their first home in Seaside.

Sponsors of the wedding were godparents, Mrs. Ray Menez of Carmel and Mr. Guillermo Bitanga, Jr. of San Francisco.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bass of Seaside were very pleased to have their mothers as their guests. Both parents were present to attend the graduation of their grandson, Dwayna Jones Bass, who graduated from Seaside High School. Mrs. Bass's mother, Mrs. I. Jones of Chicago, and Mr. Bass's mother, Mrs. Doreen Parrish of Muncie, Indiana, are frequent visitors to the peninsula.

While here, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Prestley of Seaside, entertained them during a delicious buffet supper. Mrs. Wilbert Hopkins, also of Seaside, had a delightful paito dinner party in honor of the out-of-towners.

Both always express a regret when leaving the beautiful Monterey Peninsula and look forward to a return visit.

WOODS PRODUCTION, INC

The Woods Production, Inc., proudly presents their first smash hit--"A Boy in the Family," featuring the brilliant star, Sjaun Eugene Woods, "hailed by critics and public as the best show this year." World Premiere was June 11, 1972 at 2:11 p.m. at the Alta Bates Hospital, Berkeley, California.

Co-producers of the production! his father, Harry J. Woods and his mother, Michele Francis Woods. Both parents are formerly of Seaside.

The new star's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Harrie Woods, resides in St. Augustine, Florida. His maternal grandmother, Mary Ellen Harris, lives in Seaside. Both are anxious to see the smash hit often.

Ham in Cream Sauce

HAM cooked in wine and steeped in cream sauce is a delectable method adopted from the French.

6 slices of ham;
1 cup dry white wine;
5 ounces mushrooms;
3/4 cup fresh cream;
salt and pepper;
3 hard-cooked egg yolks, crumbled;
limon rind;

Heat the wine in a casserole. Place six fairly thick slices of him in wine and cover. Let simmer on very low flame for 15 to 20 minutes. Wash and cut mushrooms very fine. Cook five minutes in cream. Season with salt and pepper. Add some juice from the cooking ham to the mushroom-cream mixture and stir into cream Add yolks of eggs and a slice into cream. Add yolks of eggs and a slice of lemon rind Place ham on a serving dish and pour the sauce over it. Makes six servings.

POST-ELECTION THOUGHTS

The recent primary elections left us with some thoughts we'd like to share with you. Here goes:

The Most Charismatic Candidate: Julian Camacho, candidate for Congress, 12th Congressional District. Also the most active campaigner.

The Most Difficult Candidate: Bert Talcott, incumbent for the same office. Remained in Washington, D.C. for most of the campaign.

The Best Prepared Candidate (as regards homework): Jane Van Hook. Look for the lady lawyer to be around for many campaigns in the future.

The Easiest Candidate to See Or Talk To: Roger Poyner, candidate in the November run-off for office of Supervisor, 5th District. If anything happened, Roger was there!

The Best Organized Group of Campaign Workers: The McGovern Campaign Headquarters group. Shows what money can do. But only if the people are with it.

The Least Impressive Candidate: Take your pick from among the losers. Our own choice is prejudiced. One thing for sure, it wasn't Lawyer Jane. She always impresses.

One thing stood out graphically in the tabulations of the results of the election: Seaside is probably the most under-registered area in Monterey County. Why? Don't you think it makes a difference? No matter what your beliefs, politically, you owe it to yourself, your community and your fellow man to get out, register and vote. If you dont, you have no business complaining when things go differently than you want them to go.

What I mean, Old Buddy, is don't come crying to me when some politician takes you for a ride. For even if your hero lose the election, your voice has been heard where it counts. The percentages gained by a losing candidate can often cause the winner to think twice before neglecting his minority constituents.

So lets get our the vote in Seaside. There will be a big push on the part of several political organizations to register an additional 30,000 voters in the 12th Congressional District (Monterey, San Benito, Santa Cruz and San Luis Obispo Counties) between now and the November election. If you are not a registered voter, or have moved since you last registered, or did not vote in the last general election, you had better get out there and get with it.

The Seaside Chamber of Commerce has as its slogan: Seaside Means Business. Now, like most Chambers of Commerce, our group recognizes that "The business of America is Business," to quote from some famous orator of the past. But we realize that the business of organizations like ours is also the business of making all of our community safe, pleasant and profitable to live in. At the last meeting, your truly shot off his mouth about doing something for the young people in the community. As any public-spirited group would, the Chamber responded admirably. As a result, yours truly wound up on a two-man committee with Cecil Bindel, with the job of coming up with programs the Chamber and its members could sponsor to give the young among us some alternatives to take the place of the negative activities so prevalent in summer months when shcool is out and supervision is at its lowest.

It is not an easy task, man, but it has got to be done. And like I said, I am going to be one of those who do it. In a column to follow, I'll let you know what Cecil have come up with. If we ask for your help, don't turn us down. Whatever you contribute will be a selfish thing. After all, you'll be doing it for yourself, as well as the entire community. The only time you should worry about selfishness is when someone else suffers. What we are trying to do is see that our yough have chance that our youth have the chance to go through life without suffering from many of the possible social and physical ills that result from the lack of proper guidance during their most formative years.

BEST MEATS

USDA CHOICE

There Is A Difference
. . . AT SAFEWAY DISCOUNT . . .
YOU'LL FIND U.S.D.A. CHOICE GRADE BEEF
This grade is awarded by Department of Agriculture experts only to meat that would deliver tender, juicy, flavorful cuts. You'll find the top grades, too, in veal and pork at your Safeway Discount.

BEST MEAT TRIM

When comparing the prices of meat, it will pay you to compare the quality and trim as well. At Safeway Discount the prices are for the trimmed cuts of meat. Excess fat and bone are cut off before the meat is weighed, thus you get full value for your money.

BEST VALUE

When you see an item marked "Super Saver" it means a special temporary savings, even below our everyday discount price. It pays to stock up on these products while these extra savings are in effect. Just another way you save every day at Safeway Discount.

BEST VARIETY

You will find all of your favorite National brands at Safeway plus a large variety of Safeway's own brands which are offered as additions to our wide selection. Safeway brands cost us less so we sell them for less. Just another way you save at Safeway Discount.

BEST PRODUCE

Safeway Produce Buyers are stationed all over the country, in every important producing area. They watch the market. They buy the best and rush it here to us. You get the best produce at lowest market prices every day at Safeway Discount.
